GRANGE CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY

Mattapoisett Grange held its bi-monthly meeting Thursday night when it celebrated its 67th anniversary.

Under committee reports, Ruby Barber, chairman of the Home and Community Service committee, reported on the work done by her committee, hours of visiting the shut-ins, tray favors made for the nursing home, church service, blood donated and pounds of bird feed bought for the birds.

Otto Kellish reported for the agricultural committee and spoke of putting sun flower seeds in the ground now.

Earle Wilson urged members to use bread crumbs etc. for the birds, especially while there is so much snow. So many forget the birds need to be fed.

Mrs. Lemuel LeBaron expressed her appreciation to all the members who gave and helped in anyway in making the Pomona supper such a success.

A welcome was given to Margarite Vaughn of the executive committee who had been hospitalized.

Under new business William Smith was elected and installed a member of the executive committee by Past State Deputy Henry Howard of Fairhaven who was assisted by Barry Denham and Susan Bence.

During the lecturer's hour, Lecturer LeBaron presented Jennie Toolis who was in charge of the program. She presented Mildred LeBaron and Rebecca Downing who rendered harmonica selections.

She then presented Mrs. Marjorie Root and the Wanderers, a male chorus, who presented a fine program of songs with Charles Smith at the piano.

A roll call of past masters was given by Lecturer LeBaron with Henry Howard lighting a candle for the living masters and a candle for the deceased masters. Those present were Henry Howard, Lemuel LeBaron, Dennis Sylvia, Albert Pemberton, Otto Kellish, Marion Hatton and Mildred LeBaron. Other living past masters not present are William H. Winslow, Chester Dexter, Russell Sherman, John Figueiredo, Frank Denham, Leonard Randall and George Randall.

Visiting masters were Clayton Westgate, Sippican Pomona; June Westgate of Acushnet, also Pomono representative; Thomas Gayoski, Rochester; and Paul Morris of Fairhaven Grange. Visitors were present from Marion, Fairhaven,

ROCHESTER BOWLING LEAGUE, JANUARY 14

Dennis Mahoney and Sons continued to set the pace in the Rochester Bowling League by taking two points from Lloyds Market. Mike Renahan's 406 was the bright spot for Mahoney's. Allen King boomed a 354 for Hartley's Garage and a 2 to 1 win over the Woodchoppers. Lou McKay chopped a 337 for the losers. Ed Leary, with a 383, picked up the marbles for Hiller's Garage in a 2 to 1 match with Hartley Saw Mill. Bobby Hartley's 341 was tops for the Saw Mill. A 348 by Rob Jefferson helped the Knotty Pine Cafe to a 2 to 1 victory over Herbs TV Shop. Stub Hartley's 363 paced Herbs.

TO SPEAK AT DINNER AT YWCA

Dr. Helen S. Mitchell of Park Street, Mattapoisett will be the speaker at a Public Affairs dinner at the YWCA, 66 Spring Street, New Bedford on Thursday, January 30, at 6:30 P.M. Her talk will be on a subject which engages leaders in all categories around the world at the present time - hunger. Hunger foments war and is the cause of innumerable social ills, hence the con-of not less than 80% to become a Super J G of the National Standing. There were 7 who passed the test in 1962 and received their pins in 1963 on the Statewide J G Day last April.

Mrs. LeBaron and Mrs. Messier then explained the National and State projects. There will be many awards from the State and National level, many coming from the Grange Insurance Company and the Sears and Roebuck foundation, and the Home and Community Service Committee of the State and National Granges.

The Juvenile Grange covers much to learn and is truly "a school out of school".

Refreshments were served by Jane and Mark Harris. The next meeting, February 7th, will be the 29th anniversary of the Mattapoisett Juvenile Grange. Lecturer, Marilyn Lewis is planning a fine program.

CALENDAR THEME USED AT GRANGE MEETING

Cakes representing each month carried out a calendar theme for the New Year's party at the Rochester Grange. Thomas Gayoski, master, presided. Escorted to the master's station were State Deputy Joseph Bradford of South Middleboro Grange; Mildred LeBaron, master of Mattapoisett Grange; Ruth Wood, master of Marion Grange; and Norman Ouellette, Sippican Pomona representative, South Middleboro Grange. Visitors were from Mattapoisett, Marion, Acushnet and South Middleboro Granges.

Twelve cakes decorated with an appropriate theme for each month were featured on two dining room tables which were arranged with miniature corresponding decorations at each cake site. Rochester members and guests were seated according to the cake representing the month of their birthdays.

Programs were conducted, including quiz games, poems, Bible readings, games and songs.

In charge of the calendar cakes and programs for each month were Robert Ouellette, January; Blanche Ouellette, February; Doris Gurney, March; Lena Vaughan, April; Paul Ouellette, May; Lois Taylor, June; Mildred Thompson, July; Nellie Hartley, August; Dorothea Hedges, September; Adeline Gayoski, October; Thomas Gayoski, November; and Lucile Ouellette, December. Besides the cakes, tea and coffee were served by Harold Taylor. Uncut cakes were sold at auction.

During the business session, the quarterly report was read by the executive board. Discussed was Boy Scout Troop 31 annual banquet. Rochester Grange sponsors the troop. An acknowledgement was read from Mary Hartley for fruit she received at Christmas. Mrs. Hartley is convalescing at home after hospital surgery. Donating to the birthday bank were Edith Norman, Doris Gurney and Mary Hartley. All present sang Happy Birthday. Mrs. Gurney was pianist. The lecturer's march was won by Mrs. Wood.

MARION GRANGE MEETING

A meeting of the Marion Grange was held last Wednesday at the Grange Hall. Escorted to the right of the master, Ruth Wood, were Deputy Joseph Bradford, Special Juvenile Deputy Mrs. Mildred LeBaron, and Thomas Gayoski, master of Rochester Grange. Also, the newest member accepted into Marion Grange is Mrs. Lydia Gifford, a former member of Natick Grange. Guests were present from Mattapoisett, Acushnet, South Middleboro and Rochester Granges. Rochester Grange won the attendance "sputnik". Miss Doris Fearing, master of Mattapoisett Juvenile Grange, introduced Mark Harris who demonstrated a poem entitled "Mark's Pockets".

Doris also presented William and Wayne Sylvia who performed a few acrobatic numbers as part of the lecturer's program.

A prize for the lecturer's march was won by Frank Jefferson of South Middleboro Grange. Mrs. Kenneth Briggs was reported home from the hospital recovering from recent surgery.

The quarterly report was read from the executive board and treasurer, and accepted. Mrs. Mary Messier reported on her attendance at a Home and Community Service meeting held recently in Mattapoisett.

One of the members served a total of 134 hours during the past 3 months. Two of the young members stayed overnight and assisted a Grange member when she returned from the hospital, a total of 30 hours. Also, a basket of fruit was given to a sick member. A member read to the blind patients, 24 hours. Several members put in over 260 hours getting the hall ready for the 50th anniversary celebration. Four members provided transportation to visit other Granges.

Two baskets were given to the needy at Christmas. Also, two boxes of Christmas cheer to elderly people. One member sewed with the scouts a total of more than 80 hours. Also, two suppers were held to help with expenses of the regional meeting.

Mrs. Bertha Deighman of the State Grange Home and Community Service committee stated that the dress sewing contest will be continued along with the knitting and crochet contest, sponsored by Red Heart Yarns and Coats and Clarks Company. A State contest for men will be the making of pot holder racks, and the women to make the pot holders for the racks. For the health project the arthritis project will be continued, except that instead of shares each member is asked to donate 50¢ or more. Members will still make the round finger exercisers along with a longer type. New instructions will soon be available.

It was voted to enter the Sears & Roebuck Home and Community Service contest.

HOUSE NUMBERS BEING MAILED

Mattapoisett House Number committee has begun to mail out cards to the residents in the center of town telling them what their house number is. The cards indicate residents have 30 days to install 3 inch high numbers on the outside of their homes. (Article VIII Section 5, Mattapoisett By-Laws.)

About 450 cards are being mailed said a member of the committee.

The committee asks recipients to cooperate by installing the numbers and filling in the information required on the cards and returning them to the Selectmen's office as soon as possible
